

Mukul Goyal's Expressive Lamps

Mukul Goyal is back to light up your lives and those dark corners with his collection of stylish lamps that radiate class and elegance and lend a contemporary touch to your interiors. One of the products, the tickli lamp offers a beautiful interplay of light and shadow through loosely inter-woven metal pieces.

Available in two finishes and sizes each, the metal screens of these lamps are quite flexible and ripple like water surface, when touched. Another product, the Mantis lamp is lean and tall with a swiveling head and comprises of a completely chromed look with a stainless steel body. This comes in three sizes. The Medieval lamps designed by Mukul Goyal are about the simple expression of yet another exploration of transparency and light diffusion in metal. These lamps come in table and floor versions and offer a convenient feature of adjustable height.
