

Mukul Goyal, who has a passion for design, graduated from IIT-Kanpur, and went on to NID, Ahmedabad and then to Domus Academy in Milan for further studies in design.

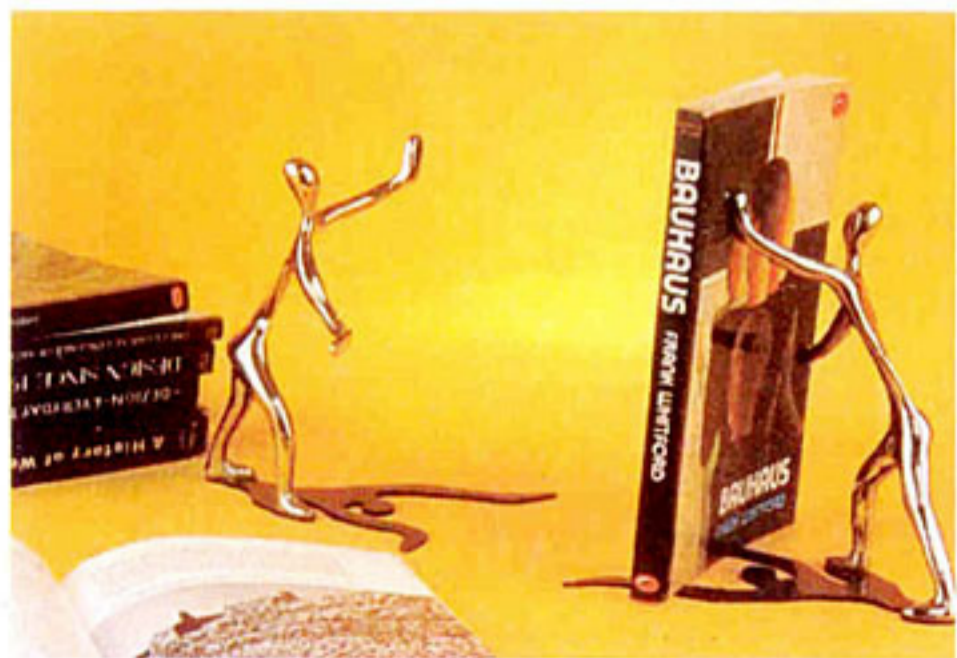

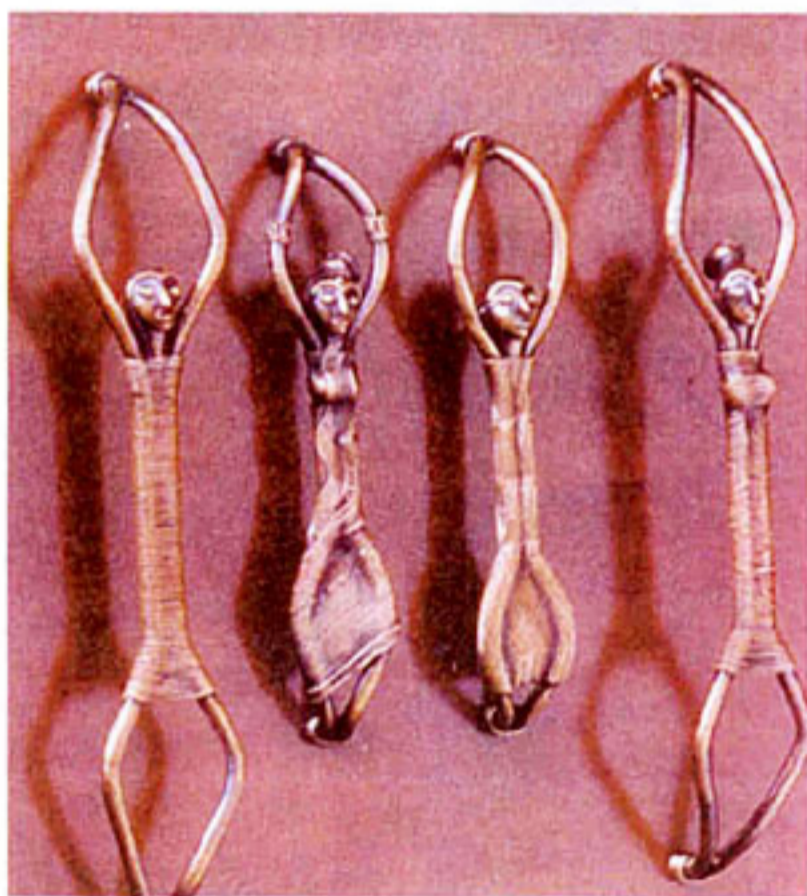

Over the last few years, he has designed innumerable objects, ranging from jewellery, home decorative accessories, hardware, lamps and furniture, and has explored various media such as metal, leather, plastic, glass and ceramic. After having worked with a variety of materials, Mukul is now concentrating on the mystique of metal for home accessories, experimenting and innovating for both the domestic and international markets.

Mukul believes that his best

designs have come from explorations while pushing the boundaries of materials and techniques. He attempts to combine the conventional with the contemporary and the traditional with modern industrial techniques, giving a softer appeal to the medium he works in – metal.

His design enterprise – named

Designwise India P Ltd has been around for about seven years. He has two brands running concurrently in the domestic market – Tattva Curtain Accessories and Mukul Goyal Design range of home objects. He also exports metal homeware. The range of products is available at several home stores around the country. O
